

Once you're done with enlightenment, things can get funny. Life takes on a completely different meaning as you don't look at things the same way. In our modern world, this can be almost un-nerving - as you don't react to things as others do around you and have few or no pressures on you (only as much as you want, actually). So I set out to write a guide to modern living, but of course it didn't take the usual approach. Because there's a Zen approach which beckons. . . And this book listens. Each piece is told in a Q and A style, as if the young student approaches an elder Master with his questions and is sometimes educated, sometimes teased, but always answered. Please enjoy this. Please throw your mind away and listen with your heart.
