

An introduction to Dr Schuesslers Bio-chemic tissue salts. Dr. Wilhelm Heinrich Schuessler was one of the outstanding intellects of the 19th century and a man whose scientific vision was far ahead of his time. Dr. Schuessler was a doctor of medicine, a physiological chemist and a physicist. As a practising physician, he was able to put his carefully worked-out theories to the test and the brilliant results he achieved led to the formulation of his unique system of cellular therapeutics, to which he gave his name - Biochemistry. From the Author I was introduced to these bio-chemic tissue salts over 18 years ago when my middle son was suffering with teething problems. Many people went out of their way to recommend the teething formula and one tiny sugar pill popped onto his tongue had a miraculous effect. I then went on to recommend them to everyone who had a teething baby in their family. When I trained in Nutritional Medicine I was reintroduced to these bio-chemic remedies. Recently I found that my muscles were very tired during my weight training so I checked out what I required and within a couple of days I was sorted. I have also found the sinus formula amazing for myself. These remedies work without producing any side effects or healing crisis. About the Author Elizabeth has a great love of books, reading and studying, she produces non-fiction personal growth e books with nineteen so far on offer here. Elizabeth has passionately studied whatever subject has interested her, some to the highest level, and along the way has amassed a huge amount of knowledge and understanding. Elizabeth is a Fellow of The Royal Society of Medicine, Founder member of the BPS Special Group in Coaching Psychology & Graduate Member of the British Psychological Society (BPS). Her qualifications include:- Doctor, Master and Bachelor Of Metaphysical Sciences, BSc Honours Degree in Psychology, Post Graduate Certificate - The Challenge of the Social Sciences, Registered Trauma Specialist, Diploma and Advanced Diploma in Nutritional Medicine, Diploma in Nutritional Therapeutics, Diploma in Nutrition, Diploma in Iridology and Diploma in Herbal Medicine.
