

Bria has always fantasized about having a true love of her own. When she stopped looking for love, love found her. She quickly realized God had to be watching over her for her to be so blessed. Tywoun couldn't wait to get released from his confinement. Once situated, he would give all he had to become the father he knows he should be. One thing he learned while incarcerated was to always expect the unexpected. But, never in a million years did he expect to fall so hard in such a short time. Bria had to be the most beautiful female he'd ever encountered. She was the entire package, beauty, brains and she could write poetry! Was he really blessed or was he dreaming?
