

Inside this hundred years Arctic legend, Myaukas epic tale comes to life. Beneath the story's mystery: What happens, to a spirit separated from its human experience? Do you truly go to heaven and live in bliss, is that it? How was the universe made? After death, are there consequences for those who took advantage of others in life? If scoundrels took, your life, and your spirit could, would you take revenge? Synopsis: In 1888, Myauka, an Inuit girl and protector of Arctic wildlife, meets a sailor from a passing ship and her destiny is altered forever. When she mysteriously disappears from her village, her story becomes legend. Did she run away to pursue true love, mocking her people, or had marauders captured her? She was never seen again to tell the tale. In 2007, Geoff, a teenager, follows his ancestral tradition of protecting the Arctic's wildlife from poachers. He kayaks in the same waters Myauka paddled a century earlier. Can he solve the mystery of her fate? Will he fall victim to the poachers while he seeks to unravel the legend of Myauka or does he awaken her spirit and revive haunting memories
