

On Eagles Wings is a book of 45 short chapters of Christian oriented stories involving children, teens and young adults in situations in the all important work of God in their lives. The stories emphasize God's unconditional love for humankind, the effect that love can have when positive Christian action is employed and understood by those seeking purpose and meaning in life. The 35 Appendices are short prayers and thoughts to inspire the reader to do God's work daily and throughout their lives. As the reader reads each story, it is hope that he or she come to know that God is in control and desires only the best for them. Although life may sometimes not make sense and there is unspeakable suffering, know that God's wings are always present to shelter under to lessen life's burdens and give one a sense of hope and courage during their trying times.
