

Responsible for internal security, the South African Police (SAP), in its relentless drive to maintain order and repress period terrorist organizations, became synonymous with excellence and outstanding effectiveness. This 883 page dual English/Afrikaans volume commemorates the organization on their 75th anniversary anniversary, exhaustively covering, among all things, all major events, units, and its leadership. The SAP was and still is largely considered the most effective policing organization on the African continent, find out why. --The History of the South African Police 1913-1988 by Dippenaar
