

After a ballot of the Highbury crowd carried out via match programmes, website and leaflets in North London pubs and shops, these are the greatest players the Gunners fans have ever witnessed. Every player chosen in each position is given a full biography, punctuated by exclusive quotes from those who played with, or against them. Complete statistics of each player chosen are followed by biographies of the runners-up in each position. The book also features the greatest goal, favourite game, and celebrity dream teams.
