

A seven-year-old girl puts a nail gun to her grandmothers neck and fires. An isolated incident, say the experts. The experts are wrong. Across the world, children are killing their families. Is violence contagious? As chilling murders by children grip the country, anthropologist Hesketh Lock has his own mystery to solve: a bizarre scandal in the Taiwan timber industry. Hesketh has never been good at relationships: Aspergers Syndrome has seen to that. But he does have a talent for spotting behavioral patterns and an outsiders fascination with group dynamics. Nothing obvious connects Heskeths Asian case with the atrocities back home. Or with the increasingly odd behavior of his beloved stepson, Freddy. But when Heskeths Taiwan contact dies shockingly and more acts of sabotage and child violence sweep the globe, he is forced to acknowledge possibilities that defy the rational principles on which he has staked his life, his career, and, most devastatingly of all, his role as a father. Part psychological thriller, part dystopian nightmare, The Uninvited is a powerful and viscerally unsettling portrait of apocalypse in embryo.
