

Trapped in a false identity, Phil Kane risks death in the search for his real self. A man awakens from a coma into an unfamiliar identity. His fingerprints burned off in a battle he does not recall. Married to a shallow, status-seeking wife, whose father is his boss at a major oil company. He must find out how it happened. He keeps having memory flashes of a different life and another wife on the West Coast. With many people invested in maintaining his new identity, he and two friends must escape the growing conspiracy and stay alive to find the truth.
